

- AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF MEXICO was founded in 1917 as an independent, non-partisan, non-profit organization affiliated with two of the most important international pro trade organizations: the U. S. Chamber of Commerce (USCC) and the Association of American Chambers of Commerce of Latin America (AACCLA).
- AMCHAM represents around 1,450 companies; 113 of our members are rated within the 500 more important companies in Mexico and 36 within the 100 Fortune companies.
- Our companies contribute significantly to Mexico's social and economic development. They are responsible for the creation of 2.5 million direct jobs and more than 6 million indirect jobs, account for 21% National GDP and 20% private investment in Mexico.
- Other than our central office in Mexico City, AMCHAM has representation in two of the most important economic centers in the country: Monterrey, Nuevo León and Guadalajara, Jalisco.
- Our mission is to promote free trade and sustained investment between Mexico and the United States, encouraging public policies that contribute to improve the business environment.
- Our Strategic Agenda focuses on: (i) Security and Rule of Law; (ii) Bilateral relationship Mexico-United States; (iii) Competitiveness; and (iv) Energy.
- Currently the Board of Directors of AMCHAM is chaired by Jorge L. Torres Aguilar, President of FedEx Express in Mexico.
- Our Board of Directors is integrated by CEOs of companies such as: American Airlines, American Express, Axalta, Best Buy, Cemex, Delta Airlines, DuPont, Exxon Mobil, FedEx, Ford, General Motors, Google, Kansas City Southern, KPMG, ManpowerGroup, MetLife, PwC, P&G, White & Case and 3M.
- AMCHAM has a National Network of 25 Committees that benefits from the expertise and support of our membership, to permanently promote a sound business environment.

Our main priorities

- Bilateral Advocacy: we represent our membership in a high level dialogue with members of both Mexico and United States governments, aligned with the topics of our Strategic Agenda.
- Business Referent: we generate timely information that contributes to improve the work and decision/making process of the companies we represent, both in economic and business matters.
- Business opportunities: We promote a business network that adds value to our membership, by connecting ideas and business opportunities.
